Newly Remodeled Local Store to Have Opening This Saturday

Saturday, June 7, there will be a formal "Opening" of the newly re-modeled Inge's Department Store here.

Shown above in the center is the front of the new store. This has had a complete renovation, and the result added to the exterior appearance and also provided considerable more floor space inside. Shown above right is an interior view, with part of the Ready-to-Wear Department. This department was formerly on the second floor. Moved to the first floor, the convenience of customers will be greatly enhanced, and the department has consequently been enlarged A nice Fitting Room is a new feature in this department. A baby department is yet another feature.

Inge's Department Store was established here by Mr. A. T. Inge. The business was purchased from him by the late Mr. C. S. Jenkins, who ran it for several years, and the store is now operated by his estate.
